

General Prerequisites | Executive Board

This document outlines the general requirements for an individual to apply for a position within the European Federation of Psychology Students' Associations' Executive Board (EFPSA EB). In addition to the specific Role Description of the position you wish to apply for, which you can find in the call on the website, we kindly ask you to read through these general prerequisites outlined in this document, which are intended to generate a clear idea of one's expectations.

Requirements

- Being a psychology student or having graduated from a university psychology course no longer than two years ago in a country represented by a Member Organisation of EFPSA
- A strong command of the English language
- Availability to work online and attend online meetings
- Strong work ethic
- An honest and respectful attitude towards others
- Clear awareness of the responsibilities and requirements inherent to the position being applied for
- Willingness to learn about EFPSA's Corporate Visual Identity (CVI), EFPSA's Statutes and Internal Regulations including its Mission, Vision and Values
- Elected candidates are required to sign a Code of Conduct at the start of their term, outlining one's ethical commitments towards EFPSA
- Providing a detailed Knowledge Transfer document upon completion of the mandate in order to receive a Certificate of Contribution to EFPSA
- Attendance at the Joint Executive Board and Member Representatives' Meeting (preferable) ●

Willingness to learn new skills and to share your knowledge with other EFPSA

members and to stay up to date with occurring activities in EFPSA

- Frequently reporting to the Board Responsible on your work progress
- Attending General Assemblies in person or online

Time investment

A Team member works 4 hours per week on average

A Responsible works 7 hours per week on average

A Coordinator works 9 hours per week on average