

Application Form | EFPSA Research Summer School 2024 Organising Committee Coordinator

Introduction

Below you will find the application for the 17th Research Summer School. Before filling this in, we kindly ask you to read the questions carefully, as well as the Role Description document of the EFPSA Research Summer School Organising Committee Coordinator.

Application Details

1. Complete the application form and submit it along with your Curriculum Vitae (CV) and proof of studies before the deadline.
2. Completed applications will be read and evaluated by EFPSA Research Programme Service, Events Office and the former RSS Organising Committee Coordinator.
3. Successful applicants immediately assume their duties after approval from the Member Representatives (MRs) and Executive Board at the voting in October 2023.

Part I

Name	<Answer>
Surname	<Answer>
Sex	<Answer>
Date of Birth (DD/MM/YYYY)	<Answer>
Citizenship	<Answer>
Country/region of residence	<Answer>
Email address	<Answer>
University name*	<Answer>
Level of study (e.g. Bachelors, Masters or PhD)	<Answer>
Year of study in that programme	<Answer>

* Please note, if you are currently visiting another university, you should not include this detail. This should be the university you will be graduating/have graduated from.

Part II

Please indicate which country/region you are applying from:

<Answer>

Please indicate the preliminary team members, their relevant experience (EFPSA positions held, experience in project management and/or event organising, etc.) and the reasons for their selection, together with your experience in project management and/or event organisation.

<Answer>

Part III

Statement of general motivation

Please describe why your team would like to host the 17th Research Summer School. You can include reasons why you believe your country/region is suitable for hosting the event on both scientific and cultural grounds. You should also note how you see the RSS contributing to EFPSA. (Maximum 400 words)

<Answer>

Potential Location/Venue

Please provide a detailed description of potential venues (up to a maximum of three) that could host the RSS. As well as their name, please include information on the location and surrounding area, available facilities, total number of rooms, the size and capacity of lecture halls/rooms, potential costs and availability through the month of July. (Maximum 250 words)

<Answer>

Funding

Please indicate any possibilities of funding available for the RSS 2024. You may name entities you have already contacted (or intend to), entities that have supported you in similar projects before and the extent to which they might support you. Additionally, please share your thoughts on the proposed total costs of the event. (Maximum 150 words)

<Answer>

Support from the Member Organisation.

Please clearly indicate that you are in contact with your Member Organisation, as we will need an acknowledgement letter from members of the Member Organisation stating their support. Please confirm that you are in contact with the Member Organisation and will provide this letter at a later point in the process.

<Answer>

Submission Procedure

Completed applications should be saved as a PDF using the following format for the filename: 'RSS2024application_yoursurname_country'.

To complete your application, please provide a copy of your Curriculum Vitae saved as a PDF using the following format for the filename: 'RSS2024application_yoursurname_CV' and a proof of studies (stating that you are a psychology student or graduated within two years) using the following format for the filename 'RSS2024application_yoursurname_proof_studies'. Please also send a document stating support from your MO to organise this event.

Please send your application together with your Curriculum Vitae and proof of studies to the Secretary General on the following email address: applications@efpsa.org.

The application deadline is Sunday 1st October 2023, 23:59 (CEST).

Note

You will be invited to an interview conducted by the Events Office within one week of the submission deadline.

If you have any questions or comments, please do not hesitate to contact Sila Soysal (Events Officer) via the following email address: events@efpsa.org.